START YOUR DELI EXPERIENCE OFF RIGHT WITH AN AUTHENTIC BROOKLYN EGG CREAM!

This old-time New York thirst-quencher is sweet and full of fizz. Despite its name, an Egg Cream contains neither eggs nor cream; it is made with Fox's u-bet chocolate syrup, milk & seltzer. We agree with Elliot Willensky, in When Brooklyn Was the World: 1920-1957, wrote "a candy store minus an Egg Cream, in Brooklyn at least, was as difficult to conceive of as the Earth without gravity." $2.49

SO WHAT'S THE STORY?

Livingston, New Jersey....if there ever was a Mayberry, this was it. Born in 1958, most of my memories growing up revolved around food, from as far back as I can remember.... Sunday mornings with Dad at Tabatchnicks picking up deli and my father poking me in the arm urging me to watch the old man behind the fish counter hand slice the nova so thin you could see through it.... I also remember sitting next to the bread slicer, in eager anticipation, so that when they sliced a rye bread one of the counter men would give me the heel to nibble on. As a kid what could be better? The stories and childhood memories are endless, but from New Jersey's finest deli's to the Carnegie & Katz's in New York and let's not forget Wolfie Cohens

Jeff's Street in Livingston, New Jersey

Rascal House in Miami, I studied in all of the great delicatessen institutions. My only diploma is this restaurant and my unwavering commitment to being as true to my roots as possible. I hope it is evident in the style, taste & presentation of my food. Over the years, I remember sitting in many of the places that have influenced me to my core and I thought how lucky these guys are to work here and to be part of it. My childhood dream has come true and I thank you for being a part of it. I truly appreciate your business & hope you agree with me that "Memories never tasted so good!"
