short story for the Picture
for a Thousand Words Event

Prologue

Long long ago when mankind still believed in the gods, the angels made a vow.

„Should the humans forget, turning their eyes away from us, and living without believing. should that day come, mankind would face the danger of annihilation.“

Those were the words of the envious angels, the words of the angels that believed that god loved the humans more than themselves.

They hated the humans, but couldn't move. They feared that god would leave them behind if they ever would consider to harm the ones created after his image.

Because of that they had no other choice but to wait and to wait and to wait. to wait for hours, for days, for months and for years, in the end they waited for several millennia.

They waited but never forgot.

Never forgot, to be forgotten, and the Angels were right, the humans did forget, turned their gaze away.

Mankind moved onwards directly into a dark age of scientology and technology. The reason for that was war, humans did fight against each other all the time and this all over again.

They fought because of religion, territory, money and so on, fighting each other and destroying each other.

After World War III in the year 2064 mankind reached a conclusion, war and all things in connection to it should just dissapear. The key to bring peace upon the humans was control, humans believed in their gods but waged war because of them, humans had individual traditions but waged war because of them as well.

Love; Happinis; Money, Religion; Tradition; Terrorism because of this reasons

Humans found a way to wage war all and all over again.

Would Taking away those reasons stop the War? The only thing that could be done was to try, to try and to try and to try and Mankind found salvation, peace.

By taking away so many things they loved the world found peace, some humans didn't like it but they were opressed, the world was in peace, the everyday life was peacfull but something was missing, days, months and years passed and Humanity was at it's peak of existence.

But that only was the beggining, in this opressed world, controled in the shadows a new fate lured in the shadow, the world will change, no one is save, who will change the world ? who will survive ?

Chapter 1

Chapter 1 - The begining

Because of the fact that this is merely a one shot, the whole begining will be kind of a summarized story.

The 11th february 2127

A certain boy is running on the street, running away from some foes that are after his life. The eyes of this boy are pitch black just like his hair and the clothes he is wearing are damaged all over the place.

The reason for them to chase after him is simple:

„A...hh , would you be so kind as to stop this. can't you see that she isn't interested in you“

Those were the words that he told them, nothing more and nothing less.

He tried to help a girl that was somehow drawn into a desperate situation and would have to pay for it.

As he tried to escape he had to think all the time about the girl, would she be safe, had all those guys come to chase him ?

He ran with all his power, run for a long time, but as the time passed his energy left him. he had to stop for a while or it would be over.

„ahh puhh“

he was looking all around and thought that they maybe had lost track on him, as he couldn't see anyone anylonger he sat down and tried to rest a little bit.

„... pahh... who had thought that those guys would go that far ? ... and anyway ... what did this girl even want in such a place like this ?“

He was certainly confused and just when he calmed down and thought he'd be safe, not knowing what become of the girl he felt a dense pain in his right shoulder. It seemed as if someone attacked him from behind without him even noticing. Was it because he let down his guard ?

He couldn't even react, the pain overwhelmed him, to the extend that he even forgot to breath.

who was it that attacked him, was it one of the guys that were chasing him ?
or was it somone else he didn't even know of.

Chapter 1

Even in this desperate Situation his thoughts of the girl didn't fade away, they were the only thing that let him stay awake.

when all the other things he was thinking about were fading away she was there, a girl he just did meet a few minutes ? or were it hours ? he didn't know, all he knew was:

„ ...!...If i don't help her, no one will“

With this words he clenched his fist and tried to stand up, it was hard and the pain was still present, but even so he didn't gave up.

„ argg.....“

the pain was strong but not enogh to stop him, he turned around and looked at the one that attacked him.

„..... what the ?“

The confusion was clearly visible in his face, he didn't understand what just happened. there was a wound on his right shoulder, he even was bleeding.

„what is going on ? No one is here“

He looked around but couldn't believe what he saw. He was attacked from behind but no one was here. The boy looked around, still not capable to accept this, there was but one place the attacker could have gone, but that wouldn't be possible, if he had so he still should be visible.

After all he was in the middle of a very long and small backstreet. just some blocks further the park would have been where the girl was.

at least he thought so, he didn't know any longer what he could believe and what not, what was real and what was a illusion created by the pain.

Confused the boy started to walk back in the direction he had come from, hoping to see the girl fine and unharmed.

But would she still be there ? Would she even thank him for helping her ? Was it even necessary to help her ?

those things were all he knew thought about.

Chapter 1

Just a few 100 meters away from the park away he started to question himself.

„Should i really go ? what is if those guys are still there ? If they started to chase after me now it would be my end, i am wounded, i can't anymore“

Tears started to well up in his eyes and the last bit off resolve left his body. The last bit of energy he had left was gone and he just fell to the ground.

lying there he did nothing but breath, he thought about nothing and he stoped to speak. no one knows how long he was lying there but after some time he heard someone talk to him.

„Hey ... are you okay ? does it still hurt ? ...“

The voice he heard was the voice of a girl, but here voice was shaking. She propably was fearing that if she didn't do something very soon his life might be in Danger.

Hearing her voice his eyes became activ again, he opened them to look were this this unknown voice was comming from.

To his surprise the voice belonged to the girl in the park, the girl that was surrounded by all those guys back then.

He opened his mouth and tried to speak.

„Y..You....., why are you here ?“

He ignored her question, if he even did hear it.

She just nodded and smiled slightly

„I am Rin, Kurosawa Rin nice to meet you. And who are you ? if it is okay to ask. giggle

„I ?“

she simply noded and smiled without saying a word

He was silent for a few momments but opened his mouth afterwards.

„I am Sentaku Ryû-moto“

That was all he told her, a few seconds later she took out her phone and called an ambulance.

Chapter 1

After that both of them did meet each other a few times, they became friends and started to hang out more and more often. Not noticing that the time was passing away very fast both of them were true to themselves.

They were very good friends and enjoyed to spend time with each other, the time was flying away and both of them fell in love with each other.

Thinking back it was funny, he just had meet her as coincidence, even so his feelinngs were true, this was the first time that he had fallen in love. but still, after all this time a little bit uneasiness was left with him.

As the time passed one thing was a mysterie, who ? Just Who did attack him back then ? why ? what reason for ? why did he survive such strong wounds ? even after all this time he hasn't found the answers.

The 24th October 2127

A certain boy was running through some backstreets, running as if his life depended on it. Running faster as he normaly did, but neither was he running away from somone nor was his life endangered, he just run.

The reason he run as fast as possible was simple and stupid at the same time, he overslept on the day he wanted to go out with his girlfriend.

Luck was on his side as for that he still had some time befor they would meet up.

So The Boy was running, running from one backstreet to another confident that he would arive on time.

So The boy with the Black Hair and even so black eyes left the backstreets, wearing a fairly expensive suit he was on his way to the restaurant they had promised to meet each other.

„ ... Just on time“ gulp

The boy was completely out of breath but he arived, a few minutes befor they had promised to meet each other.

He looked around and saw that she already had arived, so he headed straight for her.

Chapter 1

„Hey ... I hope i didn't make you wait too long“ he said as he was heading for her while waving his hand.

As She heard his voice she immediately turned around with a bright smile on her face.

„No, I Also arived just some momments ago“ as she said this her smile slightly started to fade away .

„well then lets get to our seats“ he said in a funny tone.

So the day continued and booth of them were having fun with each other, in some way it was a normal day for them, but not completly, booth of them had plans for that day.

He wanted to go out with her, on the on hand to celebrate his birthday with her and on the other hand to spend some time just with her alone.

She wanted to surprise him on his birthday so booth of them had plans concering the other one without telling the each other.

One of his reasons to celebrate his birthday alone with her was propably that he had no family, he had gronw up in a orphanage and knows absolut nothing about his parents or other relatives.

He might have some friends but he chose his girlfriend over them, he loved her more then enough to chose her over them. even thou it was his 18 Birthday.

The time passed and both of them enjoyed themselves in the restaurant they went to. They stayed for several hours, eating, drinking and chatting with each other, the shure were in sync and didn't notice the change in the air.

The time passed away and it started to get dark outside. the sun still was visible to some extend and the Sunset was bloody red.

While looking at the sky he said „ you know ? they say something bad could happen when the sunset takes such a collor“

While hearing that she whispered in his ear „ (like me breaking up with you ?) giggle“

„Wh...ha... ?“

he clearly was shooked when he heard this words.

Chapter 1

as she saw his expression she started to laugh

„haha ... calm down Sen-Chan, that was just a joke“ giggle „puhh... Don't scare me like that“ offcours he knew that it was a joke, but he liked to put up a show and wanted to joke around as well.

„It's getting late isn't it ? i think we should go home soon“ she said.

„yeah i guess you are right, but isn't it weird that no one has asked us to leave ? I mean we are here for quit a while already.. or not ?“

„yeahh....“

The were so engrossed in their conversation that they haven't payed any attention to their surrounding. No one was here, ho noice was heard, it was to quite. They were in the middle of the city, it wasn't possible to be that quite, even in the night the noices from the traffic , the people and all the other things was clearly audible.

„Whats going on here ? Thats not normal, absolutly not normal!“

As He Said that Something Unbelievable happened. The Ground started to shake and...

„Rinnnnnnnn~“

he grapped her hands and kicked himself with her in his arms away from the windows

„Kyaa~“

She screamed and didn't know what was going on, but only a mere second later, while both of them were flying through the Air a gigantic white fist came flying through the window and destroyed the chairs booth of them were sitting on only a momment ago.

„What the...“

Dust was flying through the air, a giant hole was in the wall and all the chairs and tables were destroyed.

Nothing was to be seen, the dust took their vision, the only thing they could see were each other and 3 big glowing points in the middle of the dust storm.

Chapter 1

Not knowing what to do booth of them were lying down on the ground.

„W...What the fuck is going on ? is....is that real ? is that really real ?“

Being not all to far away from losing his mind sentaku was muttering those words, for real, is that for really, really ?, whats going on ..., and so on.

As he was short about to lose it completly Haruka took his hand and stood up.

„Come idiot, we are done for if we stay here“

As she said this she took his hand and started to pull him up.

„Rin... ?“

„It seems you calmed down abit“

she said and started to run to the back door of the restaurante.

„lets get out of here“

„hum“

sentaku simply noded and didn't care to say anything else.

the shadow off the huge being behind the screen of dust didn't move, didn't care and didn't bother to follow them. It propably knew that it could catch up to them any time. So it waited, slowly breathing in and out it waited, waited for them to leave.

„Humans..... how i hate them“

giggle

„let the hunt begin... brothers“

Exactly after those words were spoken more and more creatures started to materialize in the sourounding areas.

Sentaku and Haruka didn't know about this, the only thing they knew was that they had to run, that they had to survive.

They didn't stop to run, but some momments later something big appeared in front of them. something that wasn't there some momments ago.

Chapter 1

Whatever this thing was, it sure wasn't their friend, it looked similar to the one in front of the restaurant but had instead of a very big white hand a quite normal body, wings and a kind of creepy left shoulder. Connected to the shoulder were several arms with white claws. The face of this being was especially creepy.

Both of them couldn't explain what they saw and both of them trembled in fear. But Sentaku was different from Haruka, he knew both of them were in danger and he feared this being way more than her. Even so he gripped his fists and spoke out loud.

„What are you? What do you want? and What the hell is going on here, where are all the people? I Don't understand this at all, just a few moments ago all was normal, so what?“

As he said this the big one did react and lowered his head to him, slowly opening his mouth.

„Huh. . . ? quite a lot of questions for such a little worm then you“

The Big one smiled and started to blow Sentaku away, and thus Sentaku did fall on his ass.

„Ouch..... what the“

Sentaku was kind of shocked, on the one hand this big guy could speak his language, on the other hand he just was blown away.

Haruka instead just stayed astounded and watched, watched without saying one word, watched without doing anything.

„As for your questions I am an Angel.... what do I want? or rather what do we want? .. who knows“

As he said this he was smiling very unfriendly.

„My.... no Our Name is Danariel the shadow, that is all you have to know, if you are lucky enough you might survive long enough to find out the whole truth...“

„so.... who of you two will die at first hahaha.. ?“

Sentaku was standing still, thinking what he could do, how he could save them but he failed. Not even one of these ideas would be enough to save them.

„Why why are you doing this? P..Please let us go ... we haven't done anything wrong“

As Rin said this the angel started to laugh and looked at Sentaku.

Chapter 1

„You’ve got a very nice girl there boy, maybe i should start with her, should i ?“

„dare you, if you touch her i will kill you“

As sentaku said this he stood in front of rin and tried to protect her.

„sen-chan... ?“

What was he thinking, he himself killing an angel ? Impossible.

„Boy were does your optimism come from, why aren’t you runing away any longer ?“

„Why aren’t you attacking us yet ? If you wanted to kill us you had done so long ago. You willingly messed up to kill us back in the restaurante right ? That is the only conclusion i can draw out of the events today.“

The Angel started to laugh again, but this time way louder.

„Wrong boy, you are so wrong. you would be dead by now if you hadn’t sensed our killing intend back then. be gratefull to your body, it saved you. oh well, if you want to know it so badly why do you think no other humans are around“

While liking his claw he slowly said :

„because we killed them all, in the last 4 Hours more then 30 % of the world population died by our hands.“

„30 % ?“

Rin and Sentaku were stuned, so many people in such a short time, could this realy be true, wasn’t that just a mere lie ? if that was the truth then....

„What about the bodys, i can’t see any dead bodys around, were are they ? what did you do with them, they can’t just dissappear like this!“

„Ohh boy, they didn’t dissappear, We did eat them, just what do you think how many angels came down to earth ? thousands of us are here, but why are we killing you ? ... i bet you realy wan’t know our reasons, offcours that all i stil unbelievable for you, just to believe that we even exist, that god would let something like this happen, and that all the other gos from other cultures aren’t real! It must be realy hard on you boy, see even your girlfriend has a hard time, don’t you see how she is in tears, how the despair is bringing pain to her ? I guess i realy should start with her haha!“

Sentaku looked at Rin still not understanding how all that could happen, why all of this happened on his birthday, why they still were alive, he felt that something was wrong in the things the angel told him, he wasn't capable to believe his ears, to believe the fear he felt. He remember that he had felt like this once before, back then when he meet Rin for the first time, back then when he was attacked but couldn't spot the attacker, He was badly wounded but even so his will didn't break, he felt that he had to protect her, he felt strenght coming from his heart, courage that would help him to defete any evil in his surrounding additionaly to that the did remember that all his wounds back then healed as if they were nothing, they healed that fast it was kind of scary.

With all this toughts he got his resolution, he would risk it, he would risk his life just to see Rin smile again, he didn't like it to see her sad.

„Rin.... are you okkay ?“ gulp

„Hää... um.... yes, don't worry about me, i just am a little bit schocked, i still can't realy believe what is going on here.“
(what should i do, what can we do, we can't even run away anylonger)

While thinking that, Rin looked down so that he wouldn't have to see her crying face.

„Take me if you have to kill one of us take me, but please don't harm her. Please let her live i wish for nothing more then that.“

Sentaku looked down and started to move forward not looking back what her face would be like.

„sry.....“

„Sen-chan ?“

He was saying nothing at all and kept on going straight on.

Tears were flowing down her checks, her voice was shaky and she coudln't hold her emotions any longer, tears were overflowwing and she was unable to mutter any more words. All she could do know was to see him off, he wouldn't back down any longer, he wouldn't let her stop him, she knew that but she couldn't let him go to run directly in his end. dispite knowing all of this her body wouldn't move, no matter how had she tried she couldn't.

Even if she could she knew that no matter what, his resolve woudln't be broken.

Chapter 1

Danarier looked at the girl and started to smile, right at this moment he had an awfully cruel idea.

giggle

Sentaku not noticing so stepped some more steps forward then he originally intended to „Take my life and spare hers, that is the only thing i beg from you“

Even though he knew that something was off the whole time he made this decision, even though he couldn't trust the angel Danarier he had no other choice, so many things seemed wrong, unknown and weird, even though there should be more than one angel, despite all these things he had to do it.

He remembered back when he met Rin for the first time, how he never gave up on saving a girl he didn't even know he knew that it was weird for himself but he had no other choice, that is what he thought for himself all the time „i have no other choice“. Giving his life for the girl he loved was more than enough for him to stay strong till the end, even in the face of Death he didn't give up.

Danariel sensed his resolve, his power and his will to keep going.

„giving your life for this girl, letting her stay all alone in this world overflowing with despair, do you think this is a good idea?“

„I have no other choice“

Sentaku replied with a shaky voice

„I can't let her die, no matter what, my life is nothing worth compared to hers, i have to pay her back for so many things, i was all alone, my whole life i was all alone, i had no parents and so many friends that i couldn't count them on one hand. She saved me, she showed me what love is, what it is to care for others, our world is dark, we are living in peace but what?“

„Boy, you speak of peace but isn't it just a fabricated illusion ? created by human hands against their will?“

„What do you even know ? Mankind struggled to achieve these results, it was hard for many of us to live in such a world, even nowadays it still is hard to keep on living without the lack of something, something way more important than peace itself.“

„You speak funny words Human boy, let me tell you something before i kill you, the reason for our attack, the reason for killing you Humans, listen.“

Chapter 1

Sentaku looked at Danarier to listen to one part of his so called truth.

„For more then 2000 years our god rules about this world, but he was rivaled by other gods, beings from other realms. Those beings were facinated by mankind so some of them decided to protect your race. This Race created by our god, god loved the humans more then no one and we the Angels had to endure under his love, after God created the Humans the stoped to look at us, he forgot us the Angels and kept on watching you the Humans, he told us he loved us but we couldn't believe that, it hurt in our hearts to feel that way, to disbelief in the words of our father but we had no other chance. we swore that one day, when Mankind forgot about God, how he forgot about us Mankinds end would arive. The Human world changed all and all over again, new rules new ways of life, war and killing each other were your nature, but even so god loved you the humans, he accepted your ways and kept on watching over you.“

Sentaku listened to his words thinking about the meaning behind them.

„But then you humans made a mistake. You forgot about God, the wars did stop and artificial peace came upon mankind, old teachings were taboo and mankind layed down it's traditions it's religions, those are things from the past, even so God loved you, believed in you and forgave you, we on the other hand couldn't forgive you. We Angels hate Humans, more then anything else, we decided to destroy you to clean this planet, we decided to clear up the mind of God, but he dissapeard, he dissagread with us till the end and left us, he left us but didn't kill us because we as well were children born by his hand.“

Sentaku looked down on the ground.

„And why are you telling me those things, is that all to the Truth you were Talking about ?“

„No Boy, not at all this was our main motive to wipe out mankind, our main motive but a mere part in our plans, there is so much more to our plans, to our decisions, we planed this for the last few milenia.“

„Please, tell me more“

Rin didn't interfere, she listened to Danariers words without saying a word, all she did was watching Sentakus back.

„I can't tell you more boy, i told you to survive as long as possible to find the truth for yourself, but who were i kidding ? In the End you are simply a mere Human that can't do anything for himself.“

„That isn't true“ Rin said while walking forward.

Chapter 1

„He is a beautiful Human, stronger than anybody else I ever have met in my life, his will is stronger than the will of so many other people so don't insult him!!!“

She Shouted while looking angry.

„Rin .. was your name wasn't it ? who do you think you talk to, step back, we already have decided who of you will die here and now!“

Even while hearing his words her anger didn't fade away.

„Rin.....“

Sentaku said while looking in her direction.

„Please, ... stop it“

His voice was quiet and tears were overflowing his face,

„I am sorry..... Rin, Danaier.... please... do it“

Sentaku closed his eyes and waited for his end.

Rin's eyes grew big in shock, there were merely some meters in distance between them, but every step felt very hard for her to go.

„Stop“

„..... I love you Rin, I wished we could have spent some more time with each other“

he said while looking back and smiling.

The Tears were overflowing Rin's face and the anger did fade away. While running she saw how a big white claw moved into Sentaku's direction with tremendous speed. Those were only some meters but the distance didn't seem to get smaller, whatever she did, was there no way to save him ?

While thinking this she heard a Voice in her head

„Jump, if you do it you can make it, Never give up on things you deeply love“

She didn't know where this voice was coming from, but she was desperate enough to do anything to save this boy, to save Sentaku who loved her with all his heart.

Chapter 1

While running rin stoped to think anything else, she jumped while on the run and it did work. As if she was flying the distance between both of them grew smaller. Rin Deeply hoped from within her hearth that she would save his live and it did work. while in mid air she pushed sentaku from behind aside.

„Wha... ?“

Not being to complete what he wanted to say sentaku couldn't believe his eyes. He was ready to die for her, to let her life on but she declined it and pushed him away, pushed him away to sacrifice herself for his wellbeing.

As Sentaku landed on the Ground he saw Rin flying away some meters, followed by a trail of blood.

„Riiiiiiiiiiiiinnnnnnn !!“

Sentaku couldn't see, his vision was blocked by a huge amount of tears, the tears woudln't stop and Sentaku run, following after the trail of blood the tried to find Rin.

As he did so Danaier smiled, he surley wore a very devil smile.

(What for a stupid girl)

„Rin ? were are you ?“

Sentaku shouted all and all over again and heared a tiny answer.

„Sen...chan ?“

Rins voice was light, liveless.

„Rin .. ?“

Sentaku run in the Direction the reply came from, to see that Rin was surrounded by a see of blood. He did go down on his knees and started to cry even more. He took Rin into his arms and embraced her.He saw that she hadn't much time left

„why .. ? why did you ?...“

Rin raised her right hand and layed it on his check. She started to talk with a light weak voice

„Me too..... i also wanted to spend some more time with you..... i also wanted to ...“

Chapter 1

Rin coughed some blood and continued to speak.

„I also wanted to have so many more memories from you, from us“ cough

„I ... I really do love you, you know..... i even thought about our future, about getting married, about becoming kids you know ?.... i Really would like to have 2 Kid, 2 boys.... one strong and confident like you, the other one strong but quiet, a brother that needs his older brother.....“

Sentaku interrupted her with tears in his eyes.

„Don't talk about it as if it never will happen, i.....“

his voice was very weak and shaky himself

„No i know it and you too right ? i can't see it anymore... my body is starting to get colder and colder by the minute isn't it.. ? I Neither can see any longer nor can i feel much any longer, i slightly can feel that you embarrass me, but that is all.....“

„Rin please stop talking now.... i think of something, i will find a way, this.. this can't be the end.....“

The Tears in his eyes become more and more.

„Sentaku ... I Love you, i am happy that i could meet someone wonderful as yourself, i didn't save you, you know ? on the other hand your love and your kindness.....“

She Stopped to speak from that moment on.

„Rin ?“

His voice was shaky his body trembled. Slowly and gently her hand started to go down, not because she wanted to, but all alone. he caught her hand in mid air. He remembered back in time, remembered their fun times, their moments as lovers, just a mere hour ago both of them were sitting in a restaurant, having fun to be with each other and now ? Now he is all alone again. Not knowing what he should do, the sadness took control of him.

„Hey.. Rin....Rin.... Rinn.....“

He did repeat her name all and all over again but no reply came. He did shake her body but no reply came. The boy started to cry, tears were dripping down from his eyes on Rins cheeks.

Chapter 1

Sitting there, holding Rins dead body in his hands he started to moan into the sky.

Danarier watched him, crying over the loss of the only human he ever loved, he watched him and wore a evil smile on his face.

„Isn't it tragic, how this stupid little girl gave her life to protect such a weakling like you ? Pathetic that she gave her life so willingly for you..... you know ? That is exactly what i wanted, one of my brothers did whisper to her, "Jump, if you Jump you might be capable to save him, you might make it, Haha ... so she did, went straight into her death. do you remember ? I told you that i would start with her, in the very beginning."

Sentaku still moaning Rins death fell in rage and clenched his fist. Even so he stayed with Rin looking down on her, saying „I am sorry“.

„there is nothing you can do any longer, that little slut is dead and nothing will bring her back to life, not god, not we no one“

„Shut up.... what do you know“

Sentaku got up not being capable to stand firm and strong on the ground

„what do you know!... all you bastards care about is god!! you know nothing about human sufferings, even so you run around taking our lives as if it was a game.... !“

Ignoring his statements Danarier continued in provoking Sentaku, he insulted him, insulted the girl.

„You know.. ? if i am done with you i guess i am going to enjoy my time, i really do like to play around with dead bodies, very soon that girl shall become part of my body, i really am looking forward to embrace her dead body with all my hate for Human beings.“

Sentakus tears stopped, all his despair and sadness became rage and hatred. He clenched his fist even harder now and shouted with all his anger in his voice.

„I TOLD YOU TO SHUT THE FUCK UP“

All his anger, all his hatred, all of those feelings transformed into pure energy, the ground underneath his feet started to break apart and black light started to surround him, all his thoughts were fixated on one simple goal, all he wanted was to kill Danarier, all he wanted was death, all his hope disappeared and his heart was filled with dark feelings. Slowly moving forward he looked at Danarier, his eyes were filled with hatred, his pupils started to glow bloody red and blood came out of his mouth.

Chapter 1

Not on earth but in heaven 2 angels were observing the events on earth, watching them from a safe distance. Those angels were the Arch Angels Michael and Gabriel, Michael the leader of the Angels and the strongest angel present in heaven and Gabriel who was leading the Seraphim and the Cherub in this fight.

„Michael, it seems the first one awoke to his inner powers, what shall we do from now on ?“

„It is simple Gabriel, we will continue to observe those events, warn Danarier and tell him he should take care of himself, for now we still do not know how much potential they have, and if we have to end our plans by our own hands, or by controlling their hatred.“

Gabriel created a connection to Danarier, speaking directly into his mind.

“Danarier, it is me, Gabriel new orders are to be fulfilled. We will continue to observe and you, by any means take care of yourself, we still don't know just how powerful they can get, don't try to think like a idiot, stay at distance and let him produce more and more hatred himself, senseless fighting could endanger your life, don't forget you are only a low rank angel after all. That's all, take care.“

Danarier started to smile, but his smile was full of joy not of hatred or danger, it was joy to receive new orders directly by one of the Angel Leaders.

„I Will fulfill those orders with joy, my lord“

Danarier took some distance between him and Sentaku, getting as far away as possible but it was for naught, he only closed his eyes for a second, if not even shorter and Sentaku was gone. Looking around he wasn't capable to spot him, he could look wherever he wanted to but he couldn't find him.

„What the.... where....“

While speaking those words Danarier was stopped from doing so, all he felt was a intense pain in his guts, he hadn't even time to watch down because he was sent flying through the air. Hitting some buildings on his way and breaking them apart he fell down to the ground some hundred meters away. His stomach was open and his insides were being visible. Blood was coming out of his mouth and his wounds.

„w..what chough ... when ?“

Danarier started to look around. Not seeing anything.

„What is this feeling, fear ? Am I, the Great Danarier of the Shadows fearing this mere peace of shit ?“

Chapter 1

„Don't underestimate me you little....“

Danarier started to raise his hands and started to scream out.

„Brothers, sisters of the Darkness, join my hands, let's become one once again, let's become one and teach this little maggot a lesson.“

From all corners of the city, Creatures that were looking similar to Danarier started to surround him, changing their forms into nothing but shadows they entered his body, healing his wounds, strengthening him more and more, making him smaller, Human like in shape and size, his face stayed the same. Out of six wings he had on his back, only 2 wings stayed, the power from the 4 missing wings was transformed into a katana.

„I can see you maggot, I am going to kill you now.“

Upon hearing those words Sentaku looked into his direction, as if he instinctively did wait for him to power up, as if he was saying that Danarier wasn't worth to feel all his hunger of destruction.

„D....I...E“

Those were the only things coming from Sentaku's mouth, heading directly in Danarier's direction. Holding one long piece of metal in his hand he was heading into the fight, Smashing his piece of metal directly into Danarier's sword, but it was for naught, the sword was cutting the metal like butter, there was no resistance at all and Danarier's sword did cut directly from the piece of metal into Sentaku's right shoulder. Sentaku was smashed directly into the ground and blood was spilling onto the ground.

Michael and Gabriel were surprised, even though Sentaku gained quite a lot of power that was all he could do, in the end he was weaker than a low class angel.

Even so Sentaku stood up, stood up to get beaten all over again, to get wounded on his whole body, the difference in power was just too great, all his anger, all his hatred was fading away, was all of this for naught, was he even too weak to avenge on a girl, his body lost its power and blood was all around his body, his clothes were torn apart, his body was sliced up.

„So That is all he can do, feel happy, boy, you were capable to wound me. If you can't even win against me, a low rank angel, how will you win against our leaders?“

Danarier started to laugh.

Chapter 1

Sentaku started to get up one last time, just to get attacked again. His Human body was at its limit and there was nothing he could do any longer. Lying on the ground not all to far away from Rins Body those were his last thoughts.

(I am so pathetic, i am such a weaking, in the End what did it all bring ? ... am i going to die now, will all humans on this planet die as well, if i knew that i will meet my end here, that my fate would be to stay alone for the rest of my life,..... that i would end up like this, why was i even born, for what reason, why was i always alone ?)

This is when something weird Happened, all of a Sudden in his Teary vision a little boy appeared not all to many meters away, holding in his arms his wounded mother.

„Mother ! ?“

The boy was shaking the body of his mother, crying werey loud.

(how... what. ? was this boy there the whole time..... ?)

„Yes he was!“

Sentaku started to hear a vice in his head

„This Boy and his Mother were here the whole time, look around, those aren't the only ones, you were lied too, 30 % of the Humanity death ? all lies, that wasn't their goal from the begining sentaku Ryy-moto.“

Sentaku mutterres very soundless some words.

„Who.. are you `?“

Siting on one of the very high buildings some hundred meters away a man was siting, a man with middle long black hair and black eyes.

„That doesn't matter, does it. ? Never give up, if you do you lose. your time isn't over yet sentaku, there are so many more things that have to happen in your life, you have to life on, even if you only can save one life in the end, life on. life for yourself, life for your dead girlfriend. giving up, giving in to hate and despair, that is exactly what they want.“

„you see this boy right, his mother is dead, but you still can save her. Her soul still hasn't left her body yet. i can't bring back your girlfriend, but i can let you meet her once again.“

Chapter 1

„If that is what it needs to motivate you once again to fight, not to fight for yourself but to fight for humanity. there are alot of humans that died, alot of humans that are injured, people that need help.“

Slowly Rins dead body started to glow in a white shine and a little glowing ball left her body flying into Sentakus direction.

„What is going on there. ?“

Danarier said while watching what might happen.

The White glowing ball stopped in front of Sentaku und changed it form, the ball took the form of Rin.

„R..Rin ? is that..“

she simply nooded, as she did sentaku was in tears all over again, trying to get up holding her in his arms for one more time.

„Don't give up Sen-chan, i can't stay here for all to long, the voice you heard explained all to me, i am nothing but a soul at this moment, weird right ? Just some hours ago we propably would laug about something like this being absolut stupid, but now ?“

„Rin....i, i am sry“

Tears were rolling down his face.

„Don't give yourself the fault, it isn't okay ? ... i saved you because i wanted to, even if it was a trap i did want it like this. As long as you are alive, as long as you remember me i will stay alive inside of you right ?“

Now even though she was a soul spiritual tears rolled down her face as well.

„I have to go now, please save this world, save this kid, don't give up sentaku, i do love you from the deepst of my heart.“

After she said this she kissed him for one last time, and dissapeared some seconds later.

„I... love you too, i swear that no matter what happens, i will save this world, no matter how hard it will be i won't give up, i can't give up now, if i do this boy, and all the other humans on this planet will die as well.“

Sentaku clenched his fists and stood up shouting out to the voice he heard in his head.

„What do i have to do to win, how can i become stronger then i was momments ago!!?“

Shortly after he shouted this question he heard the voice once again in his head.

„Never give up, look forward, never forget the humans that were dear to you, be yourself and accept what you are, be yourself and accept the you that will exist in the far futur. Never give up, never lose hope and believe in yourself, if you stay strong, if the will of your sould won't waver you will grow. If you are ready to accept what you are, who you are and what whill happen with you shout the wordsNexus Fate.....“

Sentaku once again remembered all his fun times with rin, how much he loved her and how much he loves her at the momment, thinking on this he didn't waver and decided to do what ever he needed to to survive this situation. With tears in his eyes he looked into the sky, thinking of nothing but love for rin, all the other thoughts dissapered completly. He took a very deep breath and shouted into the sky.

white and black light surrounded him and a giant pillar of light reached the sky spliting the clouds in two. Nothing was to be seen, nothing was to be heard. Michael and Gabriel watched the spectacle without to interfere they waited to see the results. Danarier did so as well awaiting the upcoming fight.

The air was vibrating and a big amount of energy was perceptible. when the pillar of energy disappeared sentaku was standing in its center, his eyes lost its collor and where snow white, his eyes were glowing bright red and his skin was pale, all of his wounds healed and sentaku looked into the direction of Danarier. seeing the boy and they mother in his eye angles he walked toward them, they expression of the boy was filled with fear and sentaku was going down on his knees toching the forehead of the mother and filling her body with energy, her wounds disappeared as well and warmth was comming back to her body, slowly movement came back as well, her soul hadn't left her body so the chance to save her still did exist.

She opened her eyes and saw her son, crying over her and looking kind of happy.

„thank you mister, thank you.“

„take your mother and run away from here boy, it is dangerous to stay here.“

Chapter 1

The boy took his mother and started to leave with her, leaving only Sentaku and Danarier at the scene. Sentaku had absolute control over himself and didn't fear Danarier any longer. He watched at him with disrespect and walked towards him.

„So what boy, do you feel strong now because you saved one woman ? That doesn't change the fact that your girlfriend died because of you.“

Sentaku looked bored by the things Danarier were saying and raised his right hand and looked Danarier in the eyes.

„I'll destroy that fucked up illusion of yours now!“

He closed his eyes and snapped his fingers with produced a ringing loud noise in the surrounding, slowly the air started to crack and what seemed to be a barrier was destroyed, looking around him Sentaku saw a lot of dead bodies, injured people, people that were mourning the dead.

Michael and Gabriel in heaven were astonished, seeing how the boy broke the Barrier so easily.

„What should we do now Michael ? Is this still an acceptable result ?“

„We will see Gabriel, we will see.“

Danarier was astonished as well but started to laugh.

„It seems I was wrong at some parts, you surely will bring me a lot of fun, won't ya ?“

Sentaku didn't reply on that, he directed his hand in Danarier's direction and collected energy in front of it, a small little ball of light appeared. Without any words he released the energy like a flash and fired it in Danarier's direction.

„Do you think that little bit of energy could defeat me ?“

Danarier held his sword in front of him, in attempt to block the attack with his sword, but it didn't work, the energy hit his blade and the small ball created a giant explosion leading all of the exploding energy in direction sky, Danarier who wasn't capable to escape from the energy blast was drawn directly into the center of the explosion and was torn to pieces within. Dying without even being capable to fight back any longer.

„so weak..... I can't believe that I had problems against that fiend before.“

Chapter 1

Sentaku was looking down on his hands, thinking about what was going on now.

„I Still don't know what's going on here, i don't know what this power is all about but i will find our, and i won't let these Bastards do any longer what they want to do. I Know you guys are listening to me, show yourself, or do you fear to be torn apart by a human like your weak friend only momments ago ?“

Gabriel war enraged.

„Who does this bastard think he is, i please brother, please Michael, let me send out a High Rank angel, we have to teach that brat more the just one lesson, we have to show him is place.“

„Don't Gabriel, don't underestimate that boy, we may have more then enough numbers to battle him, but we still don't know his potential, we don't even know what his powers are based on, this experiment still isn't over here. Don't lose your cool over loosing one weak supordinate.“

„I... I see brother, then let him go, we will have more then enough oppurtunitys to kill him or to use him in our plans.“

Gabrial created a connection to all angels on earth.

„for now, retreat, we soon will enter the next phase of our plans, all angels are to return to heaven for now, tell the other faction that is working together with us just now this words, We found a Human being that might be capable to fight your lord, the king of darkness, Lucifer. We in no mean do like to work together with Demons in this plot, but it is neccesary to ensure that we will win, we know that lucifer won't participate in this war, but we are gratefull that he lend us his Demons to fight on our side, to exterminate the Human race. That is all.“

With those words the transmission ended and all angels and Demons left the realm of earth, they went back into their own worlds. of real counts 12% of Humanity died and only one, but one Angel was defeated in the fights so far. Will Humanity have to chance to fight back ? Will a hope arise that can save them. all that is unknown for the Momment.

Sentaku so confident just momments ago in his power collapsed, it seemed that his body wasn't capable to handel those kind of power for the momment.

What are the experiments the angels mentioned a while ago ? What kind of connection does Sentaku has with them, their powers, the power of Darkness and Holly power resists in his body, what is the secret behind his existence, has it something to do with him having no parents ?

Epilogue

All this and so many things are still a mystery, so many things will happen. while Sentaku was Lying on the ground, being capable to do anything more for the Moment a young woman found him and took him with herself, brought him to a secret hideout under the earth.

Another young man on the search of answers was walking along the streets, but his eyes were strong, who is he, what will he do ? All these answers will come, sooner or later.

The fight for the End of the world just started, Humanity had big looses and a new power will soon be born, more and more people start to fight back and the fighting continues for severale weeks, in all this time sentaku was asleep, not being capable to wake up, he will have to face inner conflucts at first, he will have to encunter his true self, he will have to meet with the power that is hidden deep in his soul.

The Fight to determine the fate of the world just begann and won't end so easily, 3 chosen ones will appear, 3 chosen ones will meet and 3 chosen ones will fight for what they believe, this is the world of 3Fates.

The Story of the begining and the Ending of the world, the tale that will be told even 10000 years later.

After words

Thanks to all who read this far.

I am honestly sry for all the grammar and spelling mistakes so far.

It took me some more time to write as i thought, i wrote this end 1 day before the deadline for the written part and had to hurry up.

Sadly i haven't got the time to correct my grammar and spelling mistakes, but i will do so, because i too, have the will to end this story.

Which is like a past history of the Story 3Fates itself which plays 10000 years later, in a world that is so different from our world, a world full of creatrues, magical beings and so on.

With this sentence i will close this pages.

With hope that you will read what i write in the future.
