

IX-TaskForce Official Retirement Announcement

12/13/13 – 10:27 PM EST US

This paper formally recognizes the retirement of Lt. J. Penty from the Canadian Special Operations Regiment (CSOR) and the ArMA 2/3 unit IX-TaskForce. It also states my reasons for leaving the unit.

I have decided to leave due to many problems I have concerning the unit including but not limited to, Others speaking over others, power going to peoples head, lack of actual “MilSim” aspects, and the lack of an adult presence in the unit. Others speaking over others has become quite annoying, and is just childish. Multiple people in the unit have also had power go to their head, which is ridiculous as the ranks are there to hold the unit together and organize it and not pull it apart. And finally the lack of MilSim aspects while it is uncommon, is really disappointing as that is the reason we are here.

I plan to move onto another unit and I already have applied to one (404 Group Not Found), but I still do plan to hang around quite often. I also feel that IX-TF is definitely going places but is not what I am looking for currently which is, A professional, Adult ,Casual MilSim environment, and unfortunately IX-TF cannot provide such a thing to me.

I have had many good times with you guys and will hopefully will have some more.

Signed :

Joseph Penty
